Summary

Hey, my name is Vikas. I am a Google Certified Associate Android Developer from India. I have completed Android Developer Nanodegree from Udacity. Also, I have recently graduated Bachelors of Engineering in Computer Science Engineering at Government College of Engineering, Aurangabad (An Autonomous Engineering college in the Maharashtra State of India).

I am an enthusiastic Android developer with a special interest in Android Application Development. I am passionate about open source contributions, new technologies and creative problem-solving.

I have developed over six Android applications. My three apps published on the play store. I love to work on challenging projects and learn from my teammates while doing this. In my work, I try to write clean and readable code using best practices. Modern UI/UX Design, Animations and its behavior. That's what attracts me most in Android App development. In my spare time, I go in for spending time with friends and learning Android Development.

Most of my work is open source can be tracked from the GitHub account link provided below.
